

Logistics & Freight Forum Thursday 30th May 2024, 2pm Microsoft Office Teams

In Attendance:

Cllr Colin Davidson (Chair) (CD) Cllr Robin Lawson (RL) Cllr Danny Aston (DA) Cllr Tom Conn (TC) Cllr Russell Imrie (RI) Doreen Steele (DS) Linda Bamford (LB) Beth Harley-Jepson (BHJ) Keith Fisken (KF) Michael Melton (MM) Nikki Boath (NB) Rachael Murphy (RM) Sandra Lavergne (SL) Paul Davison (PD) Kevin Collins (KC) Ian Buchanan (IB) Jo Edmenson (JE) Douglas Norris (DN) David Prescott (DP) Lynne Mason (LM) Jim May (JM) John Yellowlees (JY) Stuart McLean (SM) Jane Findlay (JF) Andrew Sim ((AS) Jacquie McArthur (JMcA) Marianne Bull (MB) Daniela Paddeu (DP) Mark Bowman (MB) Naomi Kloostra (NK) Paula Godoy (PG)

Apologies:

Cllr Jenny Linehan Cllr Iain Whyte Mike Birch Jonathan Cowie Ewan Doyle

Fife Council Fife Council City of Edinburgh Council West Lothian Council Midlothian Council NCM NCM SEStran SEStran SEStran SEStran SEStran SEStran AECOM Falkirk Council City of Edinburgh Council P D Ports CILT UK Allan Rail RHA Transport Scotland TRL Fife Council Fife Council Fife Council Fife Council University of the West of England ARUP ARUP ARUP

Scottish Borders Council City of Edinburgh Council NTBCC Napier University Scottish Borders Council

Image: Network and Section 2016           Image: Section 2016 <thimage: 2016<="" section="" th=""></thimage:>	Ref.		Actions
2.       Minutes of last meeting         Matters arising from the last minutes:       KF will send out a questionnaire to all Forum members to determine what projects Forum members would like to be involved in.       KF         Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings       KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings. KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the conomic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.         Clir Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Clir Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and train freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to train freight.         Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been w	1.
2.         Minutes of last meeting           Matters arising from the last minutes:         KF will send out a questionnaire to all Forum members to determine what projects Forum members would like to be involved in.         KF           ClIr Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         ClIr Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         ClIr Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.           3.         GO Forth Freight Findings         KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings. KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the conneric benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.           ClIr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.           ClIr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.           ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to mult Matters arising from the last minutes:         KF will send out a questionnaire to all Forum members to determine what projects Forum members would like to be involved in.         KF           Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         Clir Davidson           3.         GO Forth Freight Findings         Clir Sequence         Clir Davidson           KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings. KF highlighted tha 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.         Clir Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.           Clir Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.           Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF als
KF will send out a questionnaire to all Forum members to determine what projects Forum members would like to be involved in.       KF         Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings       KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings. KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.       Clir Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Clir Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at	2.
projects Forum members would like to be involved in.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings       Image: Comparison of the transmission of the transmis therewore transmissions to determine workflow		Matters arising from the last minutes:
projects Forum members would like to be involved in.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings       Image: Comparison of the transmission of the transmis therework the trest of the transmission of th
Clir Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind power facility at Crail.       Clir Davidson         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings       Clir Davidson         KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings.       KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.       Clir Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be disel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Clir Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight.         Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.       4.         Access for Goods       Da			KF
Crail.       The minutes were approved as a correct record.         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings         KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings.       KF explained the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.         Cllr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.		projects Forum members would like to be involved in.
Crail.       The minutes were approved as a correct record.         3.       GO Forth Freight Findings         KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings.       KF explained the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.         Cllr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.		Cllr Davidson to invite Jaimey Brown to visit the wind nower facility at	Cllr Davidson
The minutes were approved as a correct record.           3.         GO Forth Freight Findings           KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings. KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.           Cllr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.           Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.           Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.           DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.           4.		•
3.         GO Forth Freight Findings           KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings.         KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.           ClIr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.           ClIr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and train freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.           ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.           DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.           4.         Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her
3.         GO Forth Freight Findings           KF explained the context, timeline and background of the freight findings.         KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.           ClIr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.           ClIr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and train freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.           ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.           DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.           4.         Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her		The minutes were approved as a correct record.
KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option appraisal methodology and described in detail the 3 options. PD explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and evaluations. KF outlined the next steps.         ClIr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         ClIr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co	3.
explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and         evaluations.       KF outlined the next steps.         Cllr Imrie highlighted that the trainline heading north of Haymarket is not         electrified.       KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be         used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel         powered for moving freight North.       KF stressed that working with Network         Rail is key.       Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery         services, Royal Mail and Network Rail.       KF confirmed that discussions         have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has       more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith.         KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL       and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line.       KF explained that         Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight.         KF explained that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.       DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods       Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link t		KF highlighted the 3 project options. PD outlined the detailed option electrified. KF explained that the converted passenger trains would be used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		explained the economic benefits, risk and uncertainty and monitoring and used within Central Belt and heavy rail multiuser trains would be diesel powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         Cllr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Cllr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co powered for moving freight North. KF stressed that working with Network Rail is key.         CIIr Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         CIIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co
Rail is key.         Clir Lawson asked what discussions had taken place with parcel delivery services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.         Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		•
<ul> <li>services, Royal Mail and Network Rail. KF confirmed that discussions have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.</li> <li>ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.</li> <li>DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.</li> <li>4. Access for Goods</li> <li>Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary</li> <li>https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co</li> </ul> have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL and Amazon in relation to tram freight.ClIr Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.4.Access for GoodsDaniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co
Clir Aston asked about the Leith Docks branch line. KF explained that Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement. DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good. 4. Access for Goods Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		have taken place with Network Rail and highlighted that Haymarket has more potential for both train and tram freight as well as the Port of Leith. KF also confirmed that engagement has taken place with Fedex, DHL
Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran has been working with the team based at Grangemouth in relation to multi user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good. 4. Access for GoodsDaniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		and Amazon in relation to tram freight.
user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine workflows. KF highlighted that setting up a trial and running a pilot would be a good achievement.         DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		Forth Ports who have been a partner since the beginning of this study, see a lot of potential around Leith Docks. KF also mentioned SEStran
DP explained that the access at Leith Docks will be a challenge. DP said that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		user heavy freight. KF explained that SEStran has been working with commercial partners and public sector organisations to determine that City Centre parcels delivery could be really good.         4.       Access for Goods         Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access         Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary         https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co		be a good achievement.
4.         Access for Goods           Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access           Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary           https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co
Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access         Planning Handbook - Stand Alone Summary https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co	4.
		Daniela Paddeu gave her presentation. Below is the link to Triple Access https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co mmittee%20and%20ijaison%20aroub%20meetinds/Logistics%20&%20		mittee%20and%20liaison%20group%20meetings/Logistics%20&%20
Freight%20Forum/2024%20Meetings/1.%2030%20May%2024/Triple% 20Access%20Planning%20HANDBOOK%20-

	%20Standalone%20summary%20-%20Final%20-18-03-24%20-%20English.pdf
	Below is the QR code for the Handbook
	https://sestran.sharepoint.com/Shared%20Documents/Governance/Co mmittee%20and%20liaison%20group%20meetings/Logistics%20&%20
	Freight%20Forum/2024%20Meetings/1.%2030%20May%2024/TAP%2 0Handbook%20QR%20Code.png orialiubook /020Qit /020Code.pilg IB provided a link for Triple Access Planning https://uwe-repository.worktribe.com/output/11751967
	Daniela Paddeu provided her email address if any Forum members would like to contact her daniela.paddeu@uwe.ac.uk .
	•
5.	Space for Cargo Bike for last-mile logistics
	PG & NK jointly presented their project research.
	20240530 Presentation Cargobikes SEStran.pdf
	I/E will also a the attraction in the set of the site of a set of the set of KF will share the study with local authority planners and transportation	KF employees within SEStran region.
	Cllr Lawson asked how many cargo bikes are operating in a Dutch city.	PG & NK
	PG & NK will investigate this.
	r o a Nr will illvesugale illis.
	RM shared a link to a report about white van cities https://www.urbantransportgroup.org/system/files/generaldocs/White%20Van%20Cities.pdf
6.	UK Cargo Bike Summit Update
•.	BHJ provided a verbal update and provided the slides from the Conference and presentations:
	https://www.cargobikesummit.uk/programme-2024
	BHJ then explained the role cargo bikes could play within the SEStran region.
	Cllr Davidson suggested that Forum members be informed of the date of	BHJ
	the next Cargo Bike Summit meeting in 2025.
7.	Suggestions for topics at future meetings
	If any Forum members have suggestions for topics for discussion or would like to present a topic at future meetings, please contact Keith
1	Fisken – keith.fisken@sestran.gov.uk
8.	Date of Next Meeting
8.
8.	Date of Next MeetingDate of Next Meeting - 21st November 2024	